Auburn Liberty Bond Parade Increases Sales

Marchers, Floats and Speeches Send Message Home

Liberty Bond sales took a big jump in the Auburn Park district this week due to the inspiring parade and demonstration which took place Saturday evening.

Crowds lined the curbs and windows of the line of march and then assembled to see the sham battle of the I. R. M.

Ex-Governor Deneen gave a rousing patriotic address that brought cheers from the multitude and made many loosen up and buy more bonds.

There is evidence that some persons have not as yet done their share because the 32nd Award has only reached about 50% of its quota and if more response and co-operation are not accorded the hard-working salespeople selling the bonds, the 32nd ward will not live up to its past performances.

The current peace talk seems to cause a lagging of interest, but a point that must be remembered is that though peace may come today the full subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan must be made because most of it has already been spent and the Government will need heaps of money to bring our boys back home to us, so you see it's up to you to say when the boys will come home. They "dig in" over there—it's up to us to "dig up."

A card and bunco party will be held at St. Sabina's Hall, 78th and Throop St., on Friday evening, Oct. 18th—35 cents.

Diary of a Volunteer

From a Woman's Club—with a "List"

First Day—

Early this afternoon started out to sell bonds for the dear boys "over there." Dressed up my prettiest, and then went back to put an extra dab of powder on my nose. Looked in the glass to see if my countenance looked sufficiently convincing that it was a "good investment" I was asking for, not charity, nor yet a personal favor to myself. Thought it was. "Tin Lizzie" was looking very smart and clean, and as though she would not "act up." As I went down the steps, up the street came my banana man. Mortal mind could not conceive that he had ever had a bath, and his clothes had been bought at a "Rummage Sale" some thirty-five years ago. However, I thought there was no harm in asking him to buy a bond, not that I had any hope. But no. "I buya de bond, buy de bank." "Oh, when did you buy?" "Buya first ting, first mana to buya—buya hun dol." Gayly I set forth, thinking, my goodness if he can buy a hundred dollar bond, what will not the woman on my list give me?

First woman, out.

Second woman, selling bonds herself, was out.

Third woman, in the bath tub. Now I could not be expected to sell bonds to a woman in a bath tub, could I? Still less could any reasonable person expect her to buy—she could not bare to.

Fourth woman, could not buy a bond. When the second bond sale was launched she and her father talked the matter over, they decided that if their country needed money it was their duty to supply it to their utmost ability; so they sold all their holdings—some bringing in six and a half per cent—and bought bonds; sold everything they had except their home; dismissed their servants, and were living just as cheaply as they could to do their— only she was too polite to say that. Meek and lowly I felt as I went down their steps; I wished I too, could do as much or more.

Fifth woman, had given through the church, all she could give.

Sixth woman, when I approached her said: "Yes, I have a check all made out for you, I will take a hundred dollar bond, paid up." I said: "God bless you," and fell on her neck. So in her house I went. She gave me some tea, some cake, the check. Then we talked a lot on some very interesting things, clubs and such. After this I was so tired I drove home; after dinner I felt a little rested; got to thinking of the wonderful sacrifices women were making, and wrote the following:

Reverie

Oh proud the day,
Most glorious hour—
When stilled the fray
By righteous power.

Each one can know,
In Victory's sight
He did his part
To help the right.

"I gave from dollars to doughnuts
Thrift Stamps, and Red Cross, too;
From Liberty Bonds, to old peach stones
To see our brave boys through."

"And never was money better spent
That gives to you and me
And everybody in this land
Both Peace and Libertee."

—MRS. G. H. NASH.

DON'T WASTE your time experimenting. We have done this for you. Have tested out a number of Indiana and Illinois coals and found them all to be pretty good. We finally selected a coal mined in Saline County, southern Illinois, known as "Harrisburg for Heat." The coal comes in egg sizes, free burning, no clinkers and gives a tremendous heat. Can be burned in any kind of furnace, hot water or steam plants, also in stoves, and is unexcelled for hard coal furnaces. Put your supply of coal in now while the getting is good. If you don't heed the warning now you may find yourself out of coal later on. Order now. We deliver anywhere. Phone Stewart 70. We have no hard coal. J. E. Memer & Son, 71st and Rock Island R. R.

"Christ in America"

The young ladies of the church and Sunday school will present a pretty pageant entitled "Christ in America" at the Marquette Road Baptist Church, corner of Marquette Road and Laflin St., on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Other features of the evening's program will be a short address given by Miss Frances E. Miller of the "Billy" Sunday party and vocal selections by the Misses Ethel Mason and Sigrid Hanevold of the Chicago Business Women's Council. Everybody is invited and admission will be free.

Mr. William F. Keene, for many years with the Gas Company, has joined the colors and is now with the Engineer troops at Georgia. His brother Ed is also with the colors and has left Arizona, where he was in the cavalry, to do field artillery work in Camp Kearney, Calif., and he writes home it is a grand place. The tents house from 60,000 to 70,000 soldiers. Robert L. is also on the lake with the iron ore boats.
